Cuba and Norway, guarantor countries in the peace talks between the Government of Colombia and the FARC-EP, reaffirm their commitment to peace in Colombia.

We have witnessed a sound and complex process, with the strong willingness of the parties. We welcome the efforts to bring about peace in Colombia.

We welcome the commitment of the parties to adopt the necessary measures to strengthen the bilateral and final ceasefire and the end of the hostilities, to the benefit of the Colombian people, and their willingness to continue to develop measures of confidence aimed at reaching, without delay, a conclusive final peace agreement.

In these new circumstances, Cuba and Norway will continue, at the request of the parties, to contribute in all ways possible to ending the armed conflict and bringing about stable and durable peace in Colombia.
