

European Workshop on Gender Sensitive Statistics for Analyzing Change and Development in Agriculture

Steinkjer, Norway, 7-9 June 2006

Programme

Wednesday 7 June

Chair person: Ms Maren-Elise Bachke, Ministry of Agriculture and Food

0900 Opening Session

Introductions by

- Ms.Viil Søyland, Deputy Director General,
- Mr.Anstein Lyngstad, Deputy Director of Agriculture
Departement, County Governor of Nord Trøndelag

0930 Introduction of the participants

1015 Cofeebreak

1045 From sex-disaggregated Data to Gender-sensitive Agriculture Statistics

Presentation by Mr.John Curry, Gender Research Officer, SDWW/FAO

Introduction to the theme

- Global and European approaches
- FAOs experiences
- Trends, Opportunities, Challenges, Biases, Omissions, etc.

Discussions

1200 LUNCH

1315 Future agriculture in Europe- the policy context for Gender Sensitive Statistics -Filling the Data Gap - Challenges and Opportunities in a Gender Perspective

Presentation by Dr. Sally Shortall, The Queens University of Belfast

Recruitment of new generations and ownership

Discussions

1500 Coffeebreak

1515 The Importance of Gender Sensitive Statistics
From Theory to Practice – from Data to Statistics

A gender sensitive retabulation project has helped the anaysis of the situation of women in the agricultural sector and gave information on rural development in Hungary.

Presentation by Dr. Eva Laczka, Director of Agriculture and Environmental Statistics Department, Central Statistics Office of Hungary

Group Discussions

1720 Wrap-up in plenary

1730 Closing of first day

2000 Dinner in hotel

Thursday 8 June

Chair person: Ms Siri Ingeborg Bruem, Department of agriculture

0830 Reflections on first day

0900 Recruitment of women to Norwegian agriculture

Lack of gender equality in the agricultural sector is one of the contributory reasons to the decreasing recruitment and young people leaving the countryside.

Presentation by Ms. Reidun Heggem, researcher at Centre for Rural Research, Trondheim, Norway

0930 Future agriculture in Europe- the policy context for GDD: Entrepreneurial Development in Agriculture

Experiences with entrepreneurship in Austria, and projects for entrepreneurial training of pupils in agriculture schools.

Presentation by Dr. Theresia Oedl-Wieser, Federal Institute for Less Favoured Areas, Vienna, Austria

Group work

- Entrepreneurship strategies
- Roles and positions for men and women
- Challenges and opportunities
- Filling the data gap

Coffebreak during session

1130 Development of a more Gender Sensitive Agriculture Statistics

Presentation by Mr Ole Osvald Moss, Director, Agriculture Department, Statistics Norway

1200 Gender Sensitive Statistics development projects and research

Presentation by Dr. Roald Sand, Nord Trøndelag Research Centre

1230 Introduction to Field trip

By Ms Siri Bruem, Gender Adviser, County Governor, Agriculture Department

Field Trip

Visits to farms in the region

Lunch and dinner during trip

Late arrival to hotel

Friday 9 June

Chair person: Ms Ingunn Soernes, Innovation Norway

0830 Reflections on day two

0900 Gender-Sensitive Indicators

Identification and Formulation of Gender Sensitive Indicators related to Workshop topics

Presentation by Mr. John Curry, Gender Research Officer, SDWW/FAO and Ms. Anne Nicolaysen, Household Resource Management Officer, SDWW/FAO

Case studies presented by participants from Estonia, Sweden and Georgia

Group work

Coffeebreak during session

1215 LUNCH

1330 Future Gender Sensitive Statistics activities

- How to follow up together and in own countries
How can FAO and other organisations/institutions assist

Case study presented by participants from Turkey

Group work

Plenary presentation and discussion

1500 Coffeebreak

1515 Wrap-up and evaluation

1545 Closing session