4 March 2010, NY time - SECRETARY-GENERAL NAMES MEMBERS TO HIGH-LEVEL ADVISORY GROUP ON MOBILIZING CLIMATE CHANGE RESOURCES

The Secretary-General has selected the members for the new High-level Advisory Group on Climate Change Financing that will work to mobilize the financing promised for climate change during the UN Climate Change Conference in Copenhagen last December. The Secretary-General announced the launch of the Group on 12 February.

The Group of 19 experts will be co-chaired by His Excellency Mr. Gordon Brown, Prime Minister of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, and His Excellency Mr. Meles Zenawi, Prime Minister of the Federal Democratic Republic of Ethiopia., and will include the participation of His Excellency Mr. Bharrat Jagdeo, President of the Republic of Guyana and His Excellency Mr. Jens Stoltenberg, Prime Minister of Norway. Joining them will be high-level officials from Ministeries and Central Banks as well as experts on public finance, development and related issues. The complete list of participants is attached.

The Secretary-General established the Group to study the potential sources of revenue for financing mitigation and adaptation activities in developing countries, and to make progress on this key issue in the course of 2010.

The Group is scheduled to hold its first meeting on 29 March in London. The Group is expected to issue initial outputs before the UNFCCC negotiating session that will be held from 31 May-11 June. The final report will be submitted to the UN Secretary-General and to the current (Denmark) and next (Mexico) presidents of the UNFCCC Conference of the Parties by November 2010.
