

COUNTER TERRORISM GROUP

KURDISTAN REGIONAL GOVERNMENT - Iraqi Kurdistan

Date: May 28, 2009
Memo: M01-IN-28009

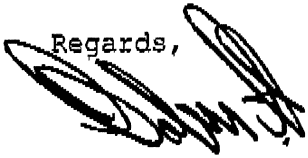

Subject Matter: Mullah Krekar

Reference to the above stated subject matter; we would like to officially state that If Mullah Krekar returns to the Kurdistan Region, he would be treated within the letter of the law, as the law states no one shall be subjected to torture or in an inhumane manner.

Mullah Krekar will most likely be brought in front of a court, and charges under Article 406 under the Iraqi Penal court, we assure he will have a legal representative of his choice.

Mullah Krekar will be considered innocent until proven guilty. Once again I would like to reiterate, Mullah Krekar will be given a fair trial and will not be exposed to torture, physical or psychological mistreatment, I would also like to state, there has been a halt to the implementation of execution in the civil court of our region.
