Annex O. Reservations by Switzerland

Chapter IX - Investment and Chapter X - Trade in services

In the reservations section, the term «unbound» shall mean that Switzerland does not commit itself with respect to the specified item.

Sector or subsector	Reservations	Chapter to which reservations apply
I. HORIZONTAL RESERVATIONS
The level of commitments in a particular sector shall not be construed to supersede the level of commitments taken with respect to any other sector to which such activity is an input or to which it is otherwise related. CPC numbers indicated in brackets are references to the UN Provisional Central Product Classification (Statistical Papers Series M No. 77, Provisional Central Product Classification, Department of International Economics and Social Affairs, Statistical Office of the United Nations, New York, 1991).
Unbound for privatisation as regards Articles 24 and 30 of the Convention.
Unbound for measures taken by cantonal and communal authorities including by non-governmental bodies in the exercise of powers delegated by such authorities.
All sectors	The majority of the board of directors of a «joint stock company» (société anonyme/Aktiengesellschaft or société en commandite par actions/ Kommanditaktiengesellschaft) must be Swiss citizens with domicile in Switzerland (except for holding companies). At least one manager of a «corporation with limited liability»	Investment

(société à responsabilité limitée/Gesellschaft mit beschränkter Haftung) must have his domicile in Switzerland. The administrators of a «co-operative society» (société coopérative/Genossenschaft) must be composed of a majority of Swiss citizens with domicile in Switzerland. Joint stock companies are not prohibited to foresee in their articles of incorporation that shareholders can be denied registration in the shareholder register, inter alia in case federal law requires a certain composition of shareholders. The establishment of a branch requires a representative (natural person) with domicile in Switzerland who is duly authorized by the company to fully represent it. The establishment of a commercial presence by natural persons or in the form of an enterprise without juridical personality according to Swiss law (i.e. in a form other than «joint stock company», "cooperation with limited liability» or «co-operative society») is subject to the requirement of a permanent residency permit of the associate(s) by cantonal law.

	The acquisition of real estate by foreigners who are not permanently established in Switzerland and by enterprises with headquarters abroad and/or under foreign control is subject to authorization. For the purpose of personal housing needs (except the acquisition of holiday residences), professional use and business activities, authorization is granted upon verification of the purpose. Prohibited are purely financial investments, real estate business operations, acquisition, on a professional basis, of holiday apartments and facilities other than hotels (e.g. apartment houses, camps, sport areas) and acquisition of agricultural real estate.
